H. TUCKER GRAHAM
NEW PRESIDENT

Hampden-Sidney Board Elects Him to Take Charge of College.

WAS UNANIMOUS CHOICE

Selected by Committee After Dr. McFaden Declined to Accept Honor.

With nearly all of the members present, the board of trustees of Hampden-Sidney, at a meeting held in the Jefferson Hotel yesterday, elected the Rev. H. Tucker Graham, of Farmville, president of the college. Though the board remained in session until 8 o'clock, the rest of the work was purely executive, the election of Mr. Graham having been unanimous in the first few minutes.

The college has been without a head since the resignation of Dr. J. Gray McAllister, which was tendered to the board at its meeting in June. At that time Dr. F. T. McFaden, a member of the board of trustees and pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of this city, was elected, though he said that he could not conscientiously give up his pastoral work, and declined the honor.

At the same time the board, fearing that Dr. McFaden would decline, appointed a nomination committee to select another man in the event that he did not accept. When Dr. McFaden made known his intentions, this committee at once offered the position to Mr. Graham, who reserved his decision, saying that he could not at that time lay down certain important work he had in hand. After four months the committee succeeded in securing from him an expression of his willingness to accept.

Mr. Graham is the son of Dr. James R. Graham, of Winchester, and the brother of the Rev. Alfred T. Graham, D. D., of Lexington, and of the Rev. James R. Graham, Jr., of China. He was born in 1855, and is a post-graduate of Hampden-Sidney. He received his theological training at the Union Seminary, and has had much experience as a teacher, missionary and a pastor. For five years he was a missionary to Japan, for six years he was pastor of a growing church at Fayetteville, N. C., and for the last four years has been pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Farmville, where he has been since the college classes in the Bible course.

No one perhaps of all the graduates of the college is better equipped to hold the position than Mr. Graham. Besides his attainments as a preacher, he is an exceptional business man, with a highly cultivated talent for organization and administration. Having been an athlete as well as a scholar, he is thoroughly in touch with the students on the athletic field, as well as in the classroom.

Personally he knows the college as well as any one not officially connected with it, as he lived there for six or seven years as a student of the college and the Chesapeake and Ohio Company should be required to build a branch line to open up this section.

The order of the commission holds that the Chesapeake and Ohio have sufficiently complied with the act in question by its agreement with the new Virginia Air Line, a branch road which has terminals at Strathmore and Lindsey, in the counties of Fluvanna and Albemarle. The new line is more than thirty miles in length, and is declared to be more than compensate the citizens of Fluvanna for the failure to erect or maintain the former branch.

Hampden-Sidney's President

REV. H. TUCKER GRAHAM.

WANT FIFTY MILLIONS FOR RIVERS EVERY YEAR

Chamber of Commerce Indorses Project of Giving $1,000 to Rivers and Harbors Congress.

BIG EDUCATIONAL MOVEMENT

City Council Urged to Appropriate Fund for Children's Playgrounds.

Indorsing the resolution introduced at the last meeting of the Board of Aldermen by Alderman Marx Gunst that the City Council appropriate $1,000 to the National Rivers and Harbors Congress for the purpose of helping to defray its expenses, the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce at its regular meeting yesterday adopted a resolution providing that a committee of five, including the president, be appointed to appear before the Finance Committee in its support.

The representatives of this State in Congress have pledged from Virginia $2,000—$1,000 from the city of Richmond and the rest to be given by Norfolk, Newport News and Petersburg—to be used for educational purposes in urging the Congress of the United States to appropriate annually the sum of $50,000,000 for the improvement of inland waterways. The amount is to be distributed by a non-political commission appointed for the purpose.

The first annual meeting of the Rivers and Harbors Congress, at which the matter will be presented, will be held in Washington December 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th.

Indorse Play-Grounds.

The Chamber also adopted a resolution heartily approving the action of the Council in appointing a special joint committee on Play-Grounds, and indorsed the recommendations of the committee made in its report of October 21st, and urged that the Council make the appropriation of $1,000 in the ordinance and in the report. The president of the Chamber was empowered to appoint a committee to present the resolution to the proper authorities and to do all in its power to secure the adoption of this ordinance or one attaining the same result.

The Finance Committee will probably act upon both propositions at the meeting to be held next Tuesday night.

New Members Elected.

As the last privilege of the activity of the Chamber numbers of applications for membership are being received each day. Those elected yesterday were: Murphy's Hotel, Davis's Hotel, Park Hotel, The Guarant Hotel, Gilbert's Hotel, Gordon Clear & Cheffert Company, E. W. Trautman, E. T. Morgan, E. Stager, E. W. Church, Morgan Bros., W. E. Morton, Richmond Type & Electrotype Foundry, Richmond, Fredericksburg & Potomac Railroad, the Clifford Smith Company, William H. Wyatt, Jr., W. A. Greenhaw, A. C. Anthony, Jr., Jas. T. Kell, T. J. King, Seed Company, Horace F. Smith, George E. Wise, B. Bowles Company, W. S. Gunn & Company, C. OLD CONTROVERSY SETTLED BY COURT

Erection of Virginia Air Line Satisfies Claim of Fluvanna Citizens.

In an order entered yesterday afternoon, the Virginia Corporation Commission settled the long-standing controversy between the county of Fluvanna and the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, successor through the Richmond and Allegheny Railroad to the rights and obligations of the old James River and Kanawha Canal. By an act approved February 27, 1879, the canal company was required to build a branch from Columbia to Stillman's Mill. The failure of the company resulted in the abandonment of the plan, and for years the citizens of Fluvanna have contended that the Chesapeake and Ohio Company should be required to build a branch line to open up this section.

The order of the commission holds that the Chesapeake and Ohio have sufficiently complied with the act in question by its agreement with the new Virginia Air Line, a branch road which has terminals at Strathmore and Lindsey, in the counties of Fluvanna and Albemarle. The new line is more than thirty miles in length, and is declared to be more than compensate the citizens of Fluvanna for the failure to erect or maintain the former branch.

ONE-THIRD OF BIG FUND RAISED IN THREE DAYS

Reported yesterday $4,045. Previously reported $29,550.

Total collected $33,595. Balance to be raised $306,405.

The total amount collected for the Greater Richmond College fund yesterday was $4,045. The committee led by Mr. Thalhimer and Colonel John Murphy raised the largest amount, with Mr. Corley's committee a close second. Mr. Corley's team, however, leads in the total amount raised in the three days since the campaign opened.

The attendance at lunch yesterday was larger than on any previous day. Superintendent Eggleston, of the Department of Public Instruction, was present and told how he had been delighted and surprised to find Richmond College men holding such a large number of high school principalships throughout Virginia. He commended them for the efficiency of their work, and spoke of the past Richmond College professors since the days of the department of Public Instruction, and that it must be raised without further delay.

Some of the workers had had a hard day, and the cheering talk around the tables was most helpful. One man declared that his canvass had taken him over twenty blocks, and that one-third of his people were out and another third were too busy to see him. He plucked up courage, however, and will try harder to-day.

It seems there never was a busier season, especially among the wholesale merchants. This makes it hard for men to see even the committees or to give sufficient time to the canvass. There are no busier men in Richmond, however, than some of those who are leading teams. Nor are they all meeting with discouragement. One captain said that of sixteen persons solicited for subscriptions only one refused. Another told of meeting a young clerk on a car who asked the privilege of giving $10 to the fund. Everybody said the city was waking up to the campaign.

The campaign is planned to last eight more working days, including to-day, Saturday, November 21st, is the final day. An average of $3,300 a day is needed to complete the fund. If half of those who have taken pledge cards with the promise to consider the matter will reach a favorable decision to-day, the figures will go beyond the necessary average.

POLICE COURT CASES

Two Negroes Sentenced to Jail, but Both Appeal.

William Gray, colored, charged with stealing a quantity of copper wire from the Tredge Iron Works, was sentenced by Justice Crutchfield to thirty days in jail yesterday morning. It seems that Gray was one of the trusted employees of the plant. He took an appeal.

Sidney Brown, colored, was fined $10 on a charge of having torn two horses belonging to Richard T. Durham. A charge of stealing a lot of boxes from Mr. Durham was continued to November 17th.

An attachment was issued for Eddie Farrar, a negro waiter, who is charged with having stolen $20.50 from the proprietor of Rueger's Hotel. He had been rebuffed for his appearance, but did not come into court.

C. & O. MAY REDUCE FORCE AT BIG GRAIN ELEVATOR

Concerning the report from Newport News that at that point officials of the company said that while the light movement of grain from the West would make it necessary to reduce the force there had been no decision to close the plant. "We can't look so far ahead," he said, "I doubt if the situation will be so bad as that."

Had Been Dead Long Time.

Marnie Jackson, an old colored woman, was found dead in her room at No. 113 Ram Alley by a police officer yesterday morning. She had been dead since Saturday night, but was not missed by her misadventurer until yesterday afternoon. The investigation showed that the woman had been held for some time. Coroner Taylor will hold an inquest this morning.

BEAT PAWNBROKER BY SHARP DEALS

Bought Bit Braces at 10 Cents, Pawned Them for 15, Then Detective Gave Game Away.

Matching his native negro wit against the sharpness that is proverbial of the pawnbroker, a colored man has escaped the meshes of the law by proving beyond the shadow of a doubt that he had transgressed no statute, and that he was fully entitled to the money he had made.

Well versed, it seems, in the greed of the average pawnbroker, he one day upon a bright idea to make money, and to do it in a way that would net him fair profit, give the pawnbroker some unusual experience, and which would not put him without the pale of the law. He had noticed some bit braces in a cheap shop on Broad Street, and he bought two or three at a venture. He paid for them 10 cents apiece. Then he went round to the pawnbroker in question and sold them for 15 cents apiece.

He made 50 per cent. profit, and the three-bit artist thought he was getting something at a cost below its actual value. Both were satisfied. The negro tried it again. It worked just as well.

"Will you take all I can bring you?" he asked one day.

"Yes," whispered the broker, "bring me in some more." The negro did bring in some more. Then a well-known detective got on his trail. He thought it suspicious. One day he followed the negro into the shop.

"Where did you get those things?" he asked sternly.

"Wait until I give you my money and I'll tell you," replied the negro.

"Tell me now," answered the detective, collaring the suspect. They argued a few moments, and then the negro said: "Come with me." He explained everything, to the satisfaction of the officer and the chagrin of the man who had been beaten at his own game.

RICHMOND TRADE PICKING UP AGAIN

Bradstreet Says Optimistic Feeling Prevails, With Larger Orders Coming Here.

Bradstreet's Saturday will say for Richmond and vicinity: In trade circles generally an optimistic feeling is noticeable and more inquiries are being received. Manufacturers of building and dimension lumber and hardware report increased orders, and prices show an advance. Machinists and mill supply dealers report a more active demand. Tobacco is being marketed in larger quantities throughout the district and prices compare favorably with those of any recent year. Cooler weather has been favorable for the handling of fruits and produce, and dealers in this line anticipate an active demand from now until the holiday season. Retail trade has been retarded by warm weather, but shows some improvement as the season advances. Collections show some improvement, but continue slow, especially in the territory where cotton is the staple product, as planters appear to be holding their product in anticipation of higher prices. Inactivity of business is prevalent in the whole between seasons periods. Dealers in confectioneries, fancy groceries and holiday goods report trade as active, though below a comparative period of last year. Building shows less activity as the winter season approaches. Railroad reports show fewer idle cars.
